Lisbon, October 28. N. S.

THE Lord Hinchinbroke arrived here the 19th Inſtant, from the Lord Viſcount Cobham. His Lordſhip has had Audience of the King and Queen of Portugal; who received him with great Marks of Favour. We have Advice that the late Duke of Ormond left Valladolid about the 20th paſt, upon the Arrival of two Couriers that had been diſpatched to him from the Court of Madrid; and that he was to imbark at St. Ander with about 1800 Men and Arms for a conſiderable Number, on five Men of War, viz. the Admiral of 56 Guns, the Toulouſe of 56, the Hermione of 40, the Fidela of 30, and the Galera of 14.

Genoa, Nov. 7. The Montague, commanded by Captain Beverley, and the Tranſports, continue at Vado: But as all the French Veſſels that were expected with Artillery and Ammunition for Sicily are arrived, and thoſe Stores are reladen on the Tranſports, we are hourly in Expectation to hear of their Departure, the Wind being come fair.

From the Camp before Roſes, Nov. 7. The French Men of War which were deſigned to block up Roſes by Sea are arrived, and lie at Anchor in the Road. For theſe three Days paſt we have had very ſtormy Weather, with ſuch violent Rains, that the Rivers having overflowed have laid the flat Country under Water, ſo that there is hardly any Communication between the ſeveral Quarters of our Army; and during this Time the Men appointed to unlade the Tartans which brought the Artillery and other Stores neceſſary for making the Siege, could not work. This Day ſeveral of the ſaid Tartans being driven by the Storm upon the Beach, were bulged. It is not yet known what can be recovered out of them: When that is known, the Marſhal Berwick will determine, whether to undertake the Siege, or to end the Campaign.

Heidelberg, Nov. 11. Mr. Haldane, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, has had ſome Conferences with the Miniſters of the Elector Palatine, and continues his Inſtances to his Electoral Highneſs, for redreſſing the Grievances of his Proteſtant Subjects, and re-inſtating them in the Poſſeſſion of the Rights granted them by ſolemn Treaties. M. Hecht and M. Spina, Miniſters of the King of Pruſſia, and of the States General, are employed in the like Offices; and Yeſterday M. d'Oſemberg Gentleman of the Bedchamber to the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel arrived here, with Inſtructions to act in Concert with his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter on this Occaſion. The Pope has written a Letter to the Elector Palatine, applauding his Proceedings againſt the Proteſtants, and exhorting him to perſiſt in his Zeal for the Roman Catholick Church.

Hanover, Nov. 3, O. S. The King of Pruſſia arrived here the 31ſt paſt at Night, and was received with all due Honours. Their Majeſties have ſince had frequent Conferences; and having every Day dined in Publick, have ſhewn on both Sides all the Marks of mutual Satisfaction. His Pruſſian Majeſty deſigns to ſet out on the 5th Inſtant, to return to Berlin. The King intends to leave this Place on Saturday the 7th Inſtant. The Duke of Holſtein came hither ſome Days ago, and went away on the 1ſt Inſtant.

Hague, Tueſday Nov. 10, O. S. His Britannick Majeſty being to ſet out from Hanover on Saturday laſt, is expected on Thurſday next in the Evening at Helvoetſluys, where the Yachts with the Men of War commanded by Sir John Jennings are attending. This Morning the Earl of Cadogan ſet out from hence to meet his Majeſty at Schonhoven. The Earl of Sunderland arrived here laſt Saturday Night, as did the Duke of Montroſs the next Day, and the Marqueſs of Wincheſter this Morning. The Earl Stanhope takes his Way by Schonhoven directly to Helvoetſluys; whither the Earl of Sunderland goes from hence on Thurſday, as do alſo the other Noblemen and Gentlemen, who are to embark with his Majeſty for England. The States of the Province of Holland are to reaſſemble To-Morrow.
